CONTRACT INSTRUCTIONS

This Contract, for Temporary Employment Services, may be used to supplement the primary resource: Contract 15PSX0114, Temporary Medical Services. Agencies should only use this Contract when all efforts to retain temporary medical services from all Contractors available on 15PSX0114 have been exhausted.

This Contract, 18PSX0102, is a multiple award to those Contractors offering Temporary Medical Services. The Contractors successfully met and/or exceeded the selection criteria for the State of New Mexico's NASPO ValuePoint Temporary Employment Services RFP and Contract, 50-000-15-0058.

Agencies are required to contact all Contractors on contract with the positions needed, duration of temporary service, location of service, hours, and any other pertinent information for available temporary staff. Client Agencies should take into consideration that Contractors may offer differing temporary medical service positions.

The Contractor who has been determined to have the lowest overall cost will be contacted by the Client Agency to ascertain the Contractors' availability. Should the Contractor be unable to respond to the Client Agency's request to Perform within a timeframe set by the Client Agency, the next Contractor with the next lowest overall cost will be contacted and the process repeated.

I. The Participating Addendums (by Contractor) allow the State to use this New Mexico/NASPO contract and add applicable terms and conditions. Specifically, this contract is limited to Temporary Healthcare/Medical Services. Each Participating Addendum (PA) has a link to the Contractors Agreement and documentation if more information is needed. The link is located at the very end of each Contractors PA document.

II. Exhibit B identifies the pricing structures offered by each of the four Contractors that supply healthcare temporary staffing. The percentage shown in Exhibit B is the administrative fee charged by the Contractor and added to the hourly rate. Where available, Contractor price lists have been attached to Exhibit B for reference.

Should you have any problems or exemplary performance issues with any Contractor, please use the Vendor Performance Reporting System (available through BizNet) to report the issues. <https://biznet.ct.gov/AccountMaint/Login.aspx>
